

Doctrinal Position Questionnaire

Self-evaluation against the Brethren-doctrine personal-beliefs taxonomy. Your responses help map where you stand on each doctrine and practice across multiple axes (importance, willingness to break fellowship, marry across, etc.).

Name:	_____
Date:	_____
Church background:	_____
Years in current church:	_____ Years in faith: _____
Tradition (if any):	_____

Instructions

- Each numbered question presents a doctrinal or practice STATEMENT phrased as the orthodox / affirming position. Read it carefully.
- Mark ONE box for your Position: Affirm = you hold this view; Deny = you reject it; Open = you can see it but are not committed; Uncertain = you do not know yet.
- Fill in your Martyrdom score 0-10. 0 = indifferent. 10 = you would lay down your life rather than deny this. Be honest, not aspirational.
- For the action questions, "the opposite" means the position contrary to the statement. Visit / Participate / Serve / Member form an escalating ladder of involvement — a Y to Member usually implies Y to all the lower rungs, but answer each independently.
- Take your time. Honesty over speed. Skip a question only if you genuinely have no view.

Question axes

Position — your stance on the statement.

Martyrdom (0-10) — how strongly you hold it.

If church teaches otherwise — Visit? Would you attend a service?

Participate? Take part in worship / communion / corporate prayer.

Serve? Volunteer, teach, lead a small group under that leadership.

Member? Formally identify yourself with that church under its eldership.

Marry across? Could you marry someone who holds the opposite view.

Teach to children? Would you actively teach this position to your kids.

Correct? Must you attempt correction if you encounter the opposite (versus letting it pass).

Break fellowship? Would you refuse ongoing close fellowship over this.

Cult-grade? Is denial of this doctrine cult-level error (rather than a regular disagreement).

Scope: 71 question(s), tier filter: essential. Reference baseline owned by Ebenezer Isaac.
